Dear Sir:

Responsive to the Office Action dated December 4, 2002, please enter the following amendments and consider the following remarks.

In the Specification:

Please replace the Abstract of the application as filed with the following new Abstract:

ABSTRACT

Q.1

A system and method for automated reporting of performance of computer system components uses a plurality of reporting clients for tracking system performance data and one or more reporting servers for automatically generating performance reports based on the performance data collected by the reporting clients. To provide extensibility, a plug-in module is provided for each of the reporting clients. The plug-in module registers performance metrics for a system component with the reporting client, tracks the
